

PETERSBURG TIES GAME THROUGH GOOD PLAYING

Hoppe's foul fly in the ninth, after running to the bleachers. There were errors made, and the game was pulled after the first inning.

It was hard to have a game counted as won slip through one's fingers as that did, but Colonel Busch earned just what he got. Both pitchers received right-edge support, and in turn both pitchers heaved creditably. Richmond, for the two innings he worked, was in no danger, while Pearson, who preceded him, has nothing at which to feel ashamed.

YELLOW JACKETS PRIMED TO DEFEAT COLLEGE

In Spite of Hane's Loss, Ashland Team Hopes to Tie

Ashland, Va., May 20.—The Yellow Jackets have been practicing hard this week in preparation for the game against their old rivals, the Richmond College Spiders, at Broad Street Park on Saturday.

The Yellow Jackets are greatly handicapped, however, as Frank Hane, the Yellow Jackets' mainstay at the bat and on first, is out of the game for the rest of the season. At first it was thought that he had just sprained his ankle, but an X-ray photograph showed that three small bones were broken. This means that a substitute will have to be broken in for this position. Coach Reiss has been trying several men on the initial sack, and it looks as though either Thornton or Barrow would be seen at this position Saturday. Besides Hane, another of the game for the present with a slight case of German measles. He may be able to play Saturday, however.

This game with the Spiders is very important, as it decides whether the Yellow Jackets will have a chance at William and Mary or not. The loss of these men, therefore, comes at the worst possible time. The Yellow Jackets are working hard to make up for the loss of Hane, and will have to have a good game for the second time, and will have to have a good game for the first time.

AUTOMOBILE CLUB WILL HOLD ENDURANCE RUN

An endurance run to the Buffalo Lithia Springs, in Mecklenburg County, Va., will be held on Saturday, May 23, by the Richmond Automobile Club. It is expected that a number of local automobilists will enter for the run. Those who care to make the trip have been asked to send in their names to the headquarters of the club at the Jefferson Hotel so that arrangements can be made for them.

DYKE KLEVESAHN NAMED TO CAPTAIN SPIDERS

Popular Youngster Honored by His Teammates at Meeting Held Yesterday.

At a meeting of the letter men of Richmond College, Dyke Klevesahn, as a reward for his services during the present season, was selected captain to lead the team of 1914-1915.

Dyke is an old John Marshall man, and one of the best that ever wore the Blue and White. Since entering college he has easily upheld this reputation. His favorite distance is the 550-yard run, and in this event he will make any one who come to beat him. He is young, this being his first year in college, and will improve steadily for a good many years to come. He is one of the best natured and one of the most popular men on the campus, and his hosts of friends wish him the utmost success in his new position.

The prospects for next year are exceedingly bright, as all of the old men return, and an influx of new material is expected on entering the new school. In all Coach Dobson has a fine nucleus around which to build a winning team, and the coming year is expected to be a banner year in college track athletics.

MAJOR J. Y. D. BINGHAM NOT TO ACCOMPANY TEAM

London, May 20.—Baron Winborne announced to-night that Major J. Y. D. Bingham would not go to the United States with the English polo team, which will play at Meadowbrook for the international polo trophy.

The English team will comprise Major F. W. Barrett, Captain Leslie St. John, Captain H. A. Tomkinson, Captain Vivian Lockett and John Trevelyan, a native of Ireland, who is playing here with the Argentine polo team.
